

Dictation Contest (PRJr, 初級) No. 1000

Hey, guys! How are you doing?

I'm excited to say that this is our 1,000th PR Junior Dictation Video!

When we first started making videos for you back at the start of the pandemic, I never thought we would get up to one thousand! The style of our videos has varied a bit since then, along with the faces in them, but I'm happy to know that some of you are still watching.

I hope you'll continue to watch, enjoy, and improve your listening skills, and... I'll see you soon.

Dictation Contest (PR 1 , 中級) No. 1000

Hey, guys! How's it going?

Well, here it is: our 1,000th PR1 Dictation Video!

When we first started making these videos around the start of the pandemic, and numbering each one in the video title, I never thought we would get to number 1,000! And because we have uploaded three videos every day since the beginning, that means we now have at a total of 3,000 Dictation Videos on our channel! That's a lot!

The nature of our videos has changed a bit over the years, as has the cast of teachers recording them, but we are glad that you are still watching and developing your listening skills with us.

I'm not sure how many more of these we'll do, but for now, I hope you will continue to watch and enjoy, and I thank you for helping us reach this major milestone.

See you soon!

Dictation Contest (PR2 上級) No. 1000

Hey, guys! How are you doing?

Hope you're all still staying healthy and safe.

As you've no doubt already gathered from the title of this video, this is officially our 1,000th PR2 dictation video!

And as the only remaining member of the original cast of video creators, I thought I should give myself the honour of recording this major milestone. So here we are!

One thousand Dictation Videos down – 3,000 in total – and things have changed a fair bit in that time: videomakers have come and gone, contents and approaches have shifted and evolved, and here I still am, saying words for you to try and write down, still hoping to test and nurture those listening comprehension skills of yours.

The nature of our videos might not be quite as creative or entertaining as in the beginning, but, whether it's news articles or pre-written personal accounts, we've still somehow managed to come up with some form of dictation exercise every single day since – and we're happy to know that some of you are still watching and listening – and furiously scribbling – after all this time.

When I helped record the very first Dictation Video, back when it was an extra-curricular activity for you guys to do in place of face-to-face lessons at the onset of the pandemic, I never thought we would reach one thousand. But as we hit 500 and slowly climbed through the 700s and 800s, it seemed like this major milestone was somewhat inevitable. I'm sorry we haven't prepared anything more significant for the occasion, and I'm not sure when the next one will be, but I hope you've somewhat enjoyed the journey so far.

Alright, guys, well, until 5,000 – and as always – study hard, stay safe, and I'll see you soon.
