

Dictation Contest (PRJr, 初級) No. 200

Hello, everyone! Thank you for watching our 200th dictation video!

I can't believe we have already made 200 of these videos. How many have you seen? Did you only start doing the dictation exercise recently? Or have you watched all 200 of them? I hope you'll watch some of the next hundred videos, too.

Well, thanks again, guys! And I'll see you soon.

Dictation Contest (PR1, 中級) No. 200

Hey, guys! How's it going?

If you are watching this, then you'll know that this is our 200th dictation video.

It doesn't feel like that long ago that I was marking our 100th dictation video, but I guess we've already doubled our number of dictation videos since then. I think the last hundred videos were perhaps a little different to the first hundred, and maybe the next hundred videos will be different still.

Do you have any ideas about the kinds of videos we can make? Can you think of any topics or scenarios that would be good for a dictation exercise, or a totally different kind of video? We want to keep making interesting and entertaining videos for you guys so please let us know what kinds of things you would like to see – and listen to.

Well, thanks again for watching some or all of our 200 dictation videos, and I'll see you next time.

Dictation Contest (PR2 上級) No. 200

Hey, guys! How are you doing?

Hope you're all still staying healthy and safe. And I want to thank you for joining me for what is our 200th dictation video.

I can't believe we've already doubled the number of our dictation videos since the time that I was announcing our 100th dictation video, which still doesn't feel all that long ago – but at the same time, feels like a lifetime ago. To mark the occasion, I've chosen a news story that is potentially serious, but also a little bit amusing. So, take a listen to this:

Residents of a Queens neighborhood are dealing with a squirrely threat. Denizens of the New York City borough's Rego Park neighborhood say an aggressive squirrel has jumped on them and bitten them for several weeks. Micheline Frederick pointed to a bruise on her wrist where she said the squirrel landed on her and then sank its teeth into her fingers and hand. "This was an MMA cage match!" she said. And I lost!"

The reason for the squirrel's aggressive behavior is not clear.

Well, I'm sure that lady didn't find it too funny, but it does conjure a fairly humorous image. I hope the city finds a humane way to deal with this squirrely threat.

Well, guys, thanks again for joining me for one or all of our 200 dictation videos up to now – and until the next one, study hard, stay safe, and I'll see you soon.
