

Dictation Contest (PRJr, 初級) No. 404

Hi, everyone! Welcome back to PR Junior.

This is part seven of the story about the fieldtrip. Let's begin!

Some children worked with Mrs. Benson. They looked carefully in all the rock pools. Nick and Will caught a large crab.

"Look at this," they called. Mrs. Benson showed them how to hold the crab.

"We'll look at it, and then we'll let it go," she said.

That is all for today. See you next time! Bye-bye!

Dictation Contest (PR 1, 中級) No. 404

Hello, everyone. Welcome back to PR 1.

Today, I have the next part of the story called, The First Peacock. Let's begin.

The song had an immediate effect. Argos couldn't focus on his job. He fell asleep. Zeus saw this, and he took the cow.

Hera was very angry with Argos. She turned him into a peacock. She put his many eyes on his tail. Argos was very sad.

Zeus saw how much trouble he had cause Argos. He made another plan. He turned Argos into a group of stars. He wanted Argos to remain in the sky forever. Even today, Argos's image remains there, above the site where all of his problems began. We can still see him in the night sky.

Well, that's all for today and I'll see you in class. Bye-bye.

Dictation Contest (PR2 上級) No. 404

Hi, everyone! Welcome back to PR2.

Today, we are going to talk about two people who hunt for fossils. Let's begin!

John and Peter were great fossil hunters. They were the very best at finding dinosaur bones. Although John and Peter were quite similar, they were outright enemies. The two men got into vicious arguments all the time. They couldn't coexist peacefully because their egos were too large. John thought he was the best fossil hunter, while Peter was sure that he was much better than John.

One day, John was searching for fossils on the periphery of the city when he discovered a huge bone. He had never seen anything like it! He took his shovel and carefully excavated the dirt around it. As he dug, he uncovered more jagged bones. He realized that he had found an entire dinosaur skeleton! John couldn't conceive a plan to remove the huge skeleton all by himself. Such an endeavor would be too arduous. He needed help. He tried to think of people who would be capable of helping him remove the skeleton without breaking it. The only person John could think of was Peter, his enemy.

Very interesting. What do you think is going to happen between John and Peter? Do you think they will get along? I guess we will have to wait till next time to find out.

See you next time! Bye-bye!
