Hello, everyone! Welcome back to PR Junior.

Today, I brought you part four of the story about Daisy and Ted's day. Let's begin:

Daisy and Ted met their friend Joey. Joey was pleased to see Daisy and Ted.

"Let's play soccer in the garden," she said.

Joey's little brother, Jamie wanted to play, too. Ted kicked the ball high in the air, and Jamie ran after it.

Alright, that is all for today. Excellent job, and see you next time. Bye-bye!

Dictation Contest (PR 1, 中級) No. 444

Hello, everyone! Welcome back to PR1.

Today, I have a news article called, 'Turtles and Plastic'. Take a listen.

Water deposits plastic waste from all over the world on Kenya's beaches. That is a big problem for turtles as many of them eat the plastic because they think that it is jellyfish, and then they die.

A new report found that young turtles die more often than adults because of plastic. Moreover, when there are a lot of plastic[s] on beaches, turtles cannot lay eggs. When the baby turtles hatch on beaches with plastic[s], they cannot get to the ocean.

Out of every 1,000 turtles hatched, only one grows into adulthood, according to the WWF.

Well, that's all for today, and I'll see you in class. Bye-bye!

Dictation Contest (PR2 上級) No. 444

Hi, everyone!

This is PR2 and today I'm going to be reading a story about a guy named Richard, who ended up in a very dangerous situation. Let's begin!

Richard was a forest ranger. Because of his job, he was secluded in a cabin in the wilderness. One day, the radio reported, "Convection in the atmosphere is causing a lot of clouds to form. A serious storm..."

Suddenly, the radio went silent. The signal was lost.

He went outside and looked at the overcast sky. Anybody else would have taken the dark sky as an omen of a very bad storm, but not Richard. His upbringing had taught him consistency. He had done this job for years, and nothing could stop him. Besides, he thought nothing could hurt him.

Today, he had a very important task to do. The snow was starting to pile up high on the mountain. If too much accumulated, it could cause an avalanche. But Richard had an apparatus to get rid of the snow. It used dynamite to shake the snow and make the top layer of snow come down. As the snow started falling, he thought about returning to the office until the storm stopped, but he decided not to. Suddenly, he heard a loud noise behind him. It was an avalanche!

Come back next time to find out what happened to Richard. See you!
