

Dictation Contest (PRJr, 初級) No. 513

Hello! Welcome to PR Jr.

Last time, the whale swam back to the man. What happened next?

The whale swam to the first man and stopped. It pushed him gently with its nose. Then, it swam to the second man, and the third man, and the fourth man. It pushed each man gently with its nose. Was the whale thanking the man? They thought so. They touched the whale with their shoulders.

‘You’re welcome,’ they told the whale. ‘You are very welcome.’

See you!

Dictation Contest (PR 1, 中級) No. 513

Hello! Welcome to PR1!

Today’s story is called “The long, long ride”. Let’s get started!

One rainy morning, dad gave all the children a ride in his new car. He had important work to do at his office, so he didn’t want to be late. First, he stopped near Paul’s school to let him get out. “Goodbye, Paul. Have a nice day”, dad said. Next, dad drove to the kindergarten and stopped by the gate to let Rachel get out. “Goodbye, Rachel”, he said. “Have fun playing with your friends”. They waved to each other as they drove away. Dad looked at his watch, because he didn’t want to be late for work.

Alright, this is it for today. Let’s continue the story in the next movie. Bye, bye!

Dictation Contest (PR2 上級) No. 513

Hello everyone! Welcome back to PR2.

Today, I am going to read you the second half of the story about the lord and the farmers, where we find out what happened between them. Let's begin!

"It is too late for me to revise my plans," the lord answered. "You will just have to live with the change."

His reply only heightened the farmers' anger. They left, but they assembled that night outside the mansion's gate. They planned to destroy the mansion. The lord's servants tried to defend the house, but the farmers outnumbered them.

The servants fled, and the farmers rushed into the mansion and set it on fire. Everyone got out of the house, and there were no casualties. However, the fire soon spread from the house to the adjoining pastures that belonged to the farmers.

Both sides' properties were destroyed. The lord and the farmers were sorry for their actions. The lord promised to pay for the burned pastures, and the farmers promised to rebuild the mansion. They had learned that when you fight, both sides lose.

In light of what is happening in the world right now, I think this is a very good lesson, which we should all remember very well. A lot more is lost than gained in war. Anyways, I'll see you next time! Bye-bye
