Then he ran into the bedroom. Some laundry was on the floor. Cody hid under a shirt, but Katie saw him. She jumped on the shirt. Her paws left [stains] on the cloth, and her claws ripped the sleeves into strips. However, Cody escaped. He utilized a small crack in the floor to hide. But Katie saw him.

"Now you are trapped!" said Katie. Cody tried to avoid Katie's claws. He moved his body as far into the hole as possible. He didn't know how he'd get out of the hole. Just then, Katie's owner came home. She saw that the house was a mess. She took a broom and swung it at Katie. She chased Katie out of the house. Cody was safe, and Katie was left outside because she didn't listen to the wishes of others.

That's all for today. See you next time!

Dictation Contest (PR2 上級) No. 619

Hello, everyone! Welcome back to PR2.

Today, you are going to listen to the second part of the story about the nurse. Let's begin!

Finally, she arrived at the monastery. It was very late. She feared the monks would not be hospitable. But she approached the door and knocked anyway. The rain had condensed on the exterior of the windows by the door. All she could see was the profile of a large man coming to answer the door. Again, she was filled with fear.

But the monk smiled at her when he opened the door. He took her outstretched hand and welcomed her with a hearty voice. The place was warm, and she heard a concert playing in another room. She relaxed.

"How can I help you?" the monk asked. And the nurse explained her situation.

He instantly knew what to do. He grabbed a parcel of medicine and took her back to the manor in a carriage. The medicine worked. The nurse was happy she had persevered through the bad weather and found the monastery. Now the boy would be able to live a long natural life.

That was all for today! What did you think? Let me know the next time you see me! Bye-bye!
