

Dictation Contest (PRJr, 初級) No. 642

Hi! Welcome back to PR Junior.

Today we will look at some short daily conversations. Let's begin!

Yerin: I went to the zoo last Sunday.

Kay: Oh wow! Who did you go with?

Yerin: I went with my family. We went by car.

Kay: What did you do there?

Yerin: We saw dolphins and penguins. They were black and white.

Kay: I also love penguins and dolphins. They are very cute.

That's all for today. See you next time!

Dictation Contest (PR 1, 中級) No. 642

Hello, everyone! Welcome to PR1.

Today, I will be reading about a new computer. Let's begin!

Ken was thinking about buying a new computer for his family. One day, while he was watching TV, he saw a commercial about a sale at a computer store. Many of the computers were really cheap. The next day, he went to the store and looked at some computers. He was surprised that some of the computers cost too much and others were too small. Finally, he found a computer that had a big screen and was cheap, so he decided to buy it. When he got home, he tried to set up the computer by himself. Now, Ken and his family use the computer every day.

This is it for today! See you!

Dictation Contest (PR2 上級) No. 642

Hello, everyone! Welcome back to PR2!

Today, you are going to listen to the second part of the text about the mice Betty and Maggie. Let's begin!

Maggie realized that her food supply was too small to last through winter. She visited her sister. Maggie said, "Betty, I am in a dire situation. I didn't gather enough food for winter. Will you let me share your beans? Please have some empathy for your sister!"

Betty thought for a moment. Then she replied, "Maggie, I am truly sorry for you. But I will not give you any of my beans. Instead, I will let you have my empty bag. You can still work hard and gather enough food for the winter. It will be tedious, but you will learn the value of hard work."

Betty's words appalled Maggie. Maggie cried with outrage, "There is too much work! I won't have any time to dance or play!"

Betty said, "It is crucial that you gather enough food. You must have sustenance before you have fun. Go now, and rectify your situation."

Maggie griped some more, but she knew that her sister was right. She took the bag and went to work gathering her own beans for the winter.

That was all for today! I hope you enjoyed the story and I will see you in class. Bye-bye!
