

Dictation Contest (PRJr, 初級) No. 80

Hello, guys!

What is your favorite game?

When I was a kid, I used to love “hide and seek”. I really liked hiding but I didn’t like it as much when I had to find the others. Then I started playing football or, as people in America say, “soccer”. I loved football so much that I was playing it every day. I really liked scoring goals.

Okay guys, see you next time!

Dictation Contest (PR1, 中級) No. 80

Hi, everyone!

Welcome to PR1 dictation. I am going to continue from my last video and read Miss Daisy is Crazy.

All the kids laughed when I said I hated school, but there was nothing funny about it. I have learned a lot in my eight years. One thing I learned is that there is no reason why kids should have to go to school.

Do you think kids should have to go to school? Okay, please tell me.

I’ll see you guys in the next video. Bye!

Dictation Contest (PR2 上級) No. 80

Hello, guys!

Today for our dictation contest, we will be reading a section from this book, it's the pilot exam.

Korean language studies [have] been quickly growing in popularity across the United States. The modern language association says the number of U.S. college students taking a Korean language class rose by almost 45% between 2011 and 2015. The group notes that the increase comes at a time when the number of college students taking foreign language classes has declined.

Korean entertainment is one reason why interest in Korean language classes has increased so much in a short period. The modern language association says that it is the biggest increase for any language at the university level. Many students say they really want to get inside the culture and they want a better understanding, and so clearly language gives us access into culture and cultural expression.

Hmm, interesting. Okay, I will see you guys later. Take care!
